From the Author

Maybe you are like I was, somewhere between a little confused to completely in the dark about what I wanted to do with my life. And, if I did figure that out...how was I going to pull it off? I really wanted to be successful, to contribute, to be respected, to be secure, and to have financial freedom. But I didn't know how.

The rules for doing so didn't work for me. Good grades, college, a family business or career counseling. Instead, I was fortunate to hook up with some people who had powerful alternatives, and given my history, I was fortunate to finally listen to them...the results have been staggering.

I had to hear this information a lot of different ways before I heard it in a way that I got it. I expect that when you study the flow of these secrets, you will get it too. Then all you have to do is hold on. --Richard Bliss

About the Author

Richard Brooke grew up on a cattle ranch in central California. After high school, Richard pumped gas at Pearson's Arco at the corner of G and Olive streets. He lived at the gas station in his camper. After failing to lock the front door of the gas station two nights in a row, he was fired and went to work for Foster Farms, the largest poultry processing plant in the world. It was a union job that paid $3.05 an hour, complete with benefits, seniority, vacation, and best of all—retirement. Richard cut chickens into parts as they flew past him on the production line.

Having established gainful employment at the age of 22, Richard fully expected to spend the next forty years of his life working at the chicken plant, building seniority (POWER), vacation time (FUN), and clicking off the years to retirement (FREEDOM).

Then a friend introduced Richard to a business model that promised fun, freedom and (as he would later describe it) a life beyond money: Multi Level Marketing (MLM). Stepping in to a new way of thinking and working required a huge change in perspective. Richard had to believe that he was both capable and deserving of success, and then relentlessly pursue a new direction in his life. With the help of friends, mentors and coaches, he did just that.

Richard made his first million before the age of 30, advancing to the top sales-leader position in a $60 million Network Marketing organization made up of more than 200,000 sales people. At age 31, he became the Executive Vice President of that company. Since that time he was inducted into the MLM Hall of Fame, served on the ethics committee and is a current member of the Direct Selling Association (DSA), served on the board of the MLMIA, and current owns and operates his own MultiLevel Marketing company.

Through Richard's coaching, writings and seminars thousands of leaders and network marketers have discovered new distinctions in listening, leadership, courage, relationships, team spirit and big-time fun. He is the author of Mailbox Money, Mach II and co-author of The New Entrepreneurs: Business Visionaries for the 21st Century. Some of the presentations that Richard has authored include:

- The 4-Year Career Plan™
- Listening Through Objections
- Value-Based Prospecting
- Vision and Self-Motivation
- The Un-Boss
- The New Leaders
- Therapeutic Listening
- Coaching For Personal Breakthrough
- A Life Beyond Money

Richard continues to play full out from his home on the lake in the resort community of Coeur d' Alene, Idaho and a horse ranch in the California foothills. He enjoys Harleys, golf, water sports, scuba-diving, skiing, snowmobiling, helicopter flying, a good game of poker and a real Cuban cigar.

A Great Book

By derazz

This book releases some great thoughts into your subconscious mind .These empowering thoughts fill you with a realization about your true ability to control and accomplish the things you want.

It is great on helping you come up with a vision and gives you the keys to 'bringing on' the self-motivation you need to hit your mark.

it tells you how you should go about it and the subconscious mechanisms you already possess which will help you get there.

it is a clearly enlightening book.

It was on the highly recommended 'to-read-references' in another book i read prior ,entitled: 'If How To's Were Enough, We Would All Be Skinny, Rich and Happy' by Brian Klemmer.

An equally worthwhile read.

other books (in the same sort of carriage) that i'd recommend to you without reservation are:

'Mastery' by George Leonard.

one that also helped me put life & my time into much better perspective is:

'How to get control of your time & life' by Alan Lakein.(This is a great book).

cheers :-)

Enlightening

By A. Cummings

I loved this book by Richard Brooke. I also read MachII starring you. Both are a must read for anyone in a network marketing business. This book has a very clear explanation of the law of attraction without all the cloak and dagger of "the secret" I especially loved his definition of vision: "To the degree there is a contrast between how we are performing now and how we envision ourselves performing, motivation pours forth.This is an automatic and natural effect. It flows whether we want it to or not." "If you think you can or think you can't you are right"

-I think Henry Ford said that. Anyway read the book. It's worth every penny.

Outstanding Read

By Kug

Bought this without a lot of expectation but am pleasantly surprised. It is clear, with a distinct approach and outstanding stories to support the Authors learning in the area of success. Not that anything is really new but it is presented in a refreshing and motivational and accountable manner. And the guy has obviously been there and done that ...
