This book's been a big help for me.

By Ken Wells

I am a man, so I can only attest to the male perspectives and observations in this book. It was alarming how much insight I got about myself. And better ways to listen and communicate with my lovely wife. It's been a big help for me.

The book repeats a lot. And normally, I think that's bad writing. But, I'm pretty sure I needed to hear some of the same things again and again. Big insight.

I bought this book because I read Men are From Mars, Women are From Venus, which helped me understand my husband more. That book has been a great asset in our marriage and I'm looking forward to reading this. We don't believe in divorce so we are in it forever. We are not perfect and all could use some great tips.

Grab your honey and read together

By echogirl

Have not finished reading this book yet. My husband and I read together just for fun and enjoy reading relationship books. We do not have a troubled relationship whatsoever but want to keep our relationship going strong and this is one way we find helps us. The book is easy to read and has lots of great tips and information. There are personal stories included from people the author has met over the years that help keep the book interesting. Some of the personal stories may ring true to your own situation and it is helpful to remember you are not the only one going through a certain situation.
