Best book for pug owners

By pugged

We have owned a total of 7 pugs over the last 50 years and have fostered many more. This book should be required reading for all new pug owners as it tells you in simple language how to raise, care for, and love a pug. This book is not for pug breeders. If you want to know why, check your nearest pug rescue.

Pugs Puggy Puggie

By Victoria Hobbs

Having been owned by a Pug for the last 8 years... They are definitely different in personality, physicality, and this is an excellent book for the potential Pug owner. It is a good quick reference if you have a Pug. The medical reference is very helpful. Good luck

Lovable Pugs

By BeatleBangs1964

Pugs are a delightful ancient Chinese breed. This book is for all pug owners from the breeder to those who raise show dogs to the happy pet owner. A plethora of information about the breed as well as the specific care pugs require is included. Readers learn to clean the curly tailed dog's facial folds and to finger curl their tails when they are puppies.
