A Regency-period short story... It's too late for Emily to back out of her wedding, even though she's pretty sure she'll regret it if she says "I do." The groom is just as reluctant -- and their respective fathers seem to be the only ones who think the wedding is a good idea. Will Harry and Emily make it to the altar?

Nice Short Regency Novella!

By Beverly Romance Books

To give a book a Review of "1" and then say it was too short, when the description says it is a short novella, is extremely unfair to this author. Leigh Michaels is an excellent writer and her books are always entertaining. A good read at 99 cents is worth it!

Charming, quirky little tale!

By lark

This was fun! A sweet, light story.

I happened upon it after having just read a lengthy, rather intense novel. This was the perfect dessert.

Charming story

By Sandy Milan

This was a very short story but very charming and sweet. Basically the h is a sensible girl and her marriage is arranged to the second son of a Marquis. The Marquis thinks the h will be a stabilising influence in rakish Harry's life. The h knows it's a mistake but doesn't really see how she can get out of it. The problem is that she is also more attracted to someone else. I won't give spoilers because honestly the book is very short and worth reading
