The archangel Majelin has been imprisoned and tortured in the underworld of Sherinias' domain for five centuries. Eventually, his light will die and he will fall to the darkness. Whispers of a tar'merin travelling with Kayos have reached Airedene, the Sacred City of Angels, giving Sarmalin hope that her husband might be saved, and she goes to plead with the Demon Lord.

The archangel is in a chamber warded against dark gods, however, so Bane must enter it powerless, or Majelin will die. Bane is forced to use the shadows when demon guardians attack, triggering the trap. He follows the archangel into the underworld's depths to protect him, and they fall into a hidden world inhabited by legendary beings from the Times of Reckoning.

Many of Bane's powers do not work there, and his attempts to escape fail, but if he does not return to Sherinias' domain in time, the dark gods he cast down will rise again and enslave the child goddess. Best series I have ever read...

By Adam Solis

I couldn't wait for the next book to come out in the series and I was not disappointed! I read it all the first day because I could not put it down. I have read every single book in the series and they keep on getting better with each one. The author does a really good job of adding new plots and twists to the storyline which keep it fresh and interesting. These books are really good because they have a good combination of adventure, battles, comedy, importance of friendship, and the triumph of good over evil. If you are looking for a good science fiction series to get started on and at a very affordable price of 2.99 per book you should look into this one. Only question is when does the next one come out?!

Its ok but not as good as the queens blade series

By Kindle Customer

This series drags on a bit but i enjoy it..

i by far prefer her Queens blade series perhaps because it has less empasis on submission to define power which annoys me as i am an atheist..

but i still enkoj this... just like i still enjoy My little pony even though it had that annoying ass Pinky twitch episode which totally annoys my sceptical mind... incredulity is not a virtue...

By alfonso J. Gonzalez

I discovers this series a couple of days ago. I could not put down until I read all 8 books. The worst part of series is waiting for the next book. I enjoy the charters and the trouble he get into always thinking it will be quick and easy. It almost seems he starting feel that it's never going to be easy
